Best Ball Butts 2026: Week 6 outlook

As of 2026-10-14. Weeks 1–5 are final and locked in; Week 6 starts Thursday. The numbers are the average of 12 season simulations (6 projection sources × 2 noise models, 8,000 seasons each) on the real schedule, best-ball scoring and Sleeper's 6-team bracket.

TL;DR

- Noelle is still the favorite at 22.7% (was 26.1%). She's 4-1 and 1st in 5 of 12 runs, with a 59.5% chance at a bye.
- Emma is close behind at 20.9% (was 25.2%) after losing to Raghav. She leads the league in points (989.1) and is 1st in 7 of 12 runs, but the market and production sources rate her near 11%.
- Ben holds 3rd at 17.7%. Conrad (13.3%) and Henry (10.5%) rose the most after Week 5 wins. Raghav 10.8%, Lauren 3.9%, Avery 0.2% (last in all 12 runs).

What changed since last week

- Week 5: Conrad beat Ben (217.8–205.8), Henry beat Avery (217.7–199.0), Raghav beat Emma (187.7–162.0) and Noelle beat Lauren (177.2–125.1). Drake Maye (Henry) had the week's top score at 47.5, ahead of Puka Nacua (Conrad) and Jahmyr Gibbs (Henry) at 37.7 each.
- Back from injury: Daniels (Noelle), Chase (Raghav), Jefferson (Avery), McLaurin (Emma) and Goedert (Henry) all played in Week 5.
- New injuries: Monangai (Lauren) has turf toe and could miss 1–2 weeks. Montgomery and Samuel (both Avery) are out until after their Week 8 byes. Pittman (Raghav) is on IR, and Roman Wilson (Raghav) dislocated a finger. Henderson (Henry) has a high-ankle sprain.
- Still uncertain for Week 6: Lamar Jackson (Emma) has a "real chance" to return; Barkley, DeVonta Smith (both Avery) and Breece Hall (Henry) are game-time calls.
- Moves: Conrad swapped Kyler Murray for Jacoby Brissett and Keaton Mitchell for Braelon Allen, and switched from the Chiefs D/ST to the Commanders.

Team by team

- Noelle (22.7%): 4-1 and 2.2 points behind Emma for the league lead. She's 1st or 2nd in 10 of 12 runs; Pierce, Price and Charbonnet are still out.
- Emma (20.9%): 3-2 with the most points, and 1st in 7 of 12 runs. The market and production sources disagree (about 11%), and Lamar's ankle is still a question for Week 6.
- Ben (17.7%): 3-2 and 3rd in 8 of 12 runs, with the steadiest range (13–21%). Lamb's quad bruise isn't considered serious.
- Conrad (13.3%): 2-3, but up 4.3 after back-to-back 200-point wins, and 4th in 8 of 12 runs. Caleb Williams's hamstring and Kamara's back are the Week 6 questions.
- Raghav (10.8%): 4-1 but 6th in points. With the record removed he'd rank 6th at 7.9%. Etienne, Pittman and Wilson are all out for Week 6.
- Henry (10.5%): 1-4, but 4th with the record removed (15.5%) after a 217.7-point win. The ESPN source likes him most (15–17%).
- Lauren (3.9%): 3-2 but 7th in points. Monangai, Jacobs and Sampson are out, and Rice is a Week 6 question.

- Avery (0.2%): 0-5 and last in all 12 runs, with Montgomery, Samuel and Bigsby out and Barkley a game-time call.

Data checks

- D/ST scoring: all 63 defense scores in Weeks 1–5 match a recount from Sleeper's raw stats (0 mismatches). One score is a zero: the Raiders D/ST in Week 5, which the recount also gives 0, so it looks like a real score.
- Data source: rosters, byes and projections came through Raghav's gateway MCP (`sleeper-draft__export_league_snapshot`, sha256-verified). The direct-API fallback was not used.
- Caveats: rosters are frozen from here (no waivers or trades). Injury news was checked before Week 6 practice reports came out, so game-time decisions are scored as partial chances, mostly 0.5–0.85. Many of those (Diggs, DJ Moore, Johnston, Hall, McConkey) are low-confidence and should be rechecked against Thursday's reports.
